Weigel Broadcasting Co. announces the national launch of classic TV Network:

November 22, 2010 - Me-TV, seen on Weigel Broadcasting Co.'s Chicago and Milwaukee television stations, will go national as a free, over-the-air television network for local broadcasters as early as January 2011.

Me-TV will feature a 24/7 format showcasing many of the key, iconic series in genres such as comedy, drama, western adventure and crime/courtroom/detective series.

Weigel Broadcasting Co. has secured long-term licensing agreements for more than 50 individual series spanning the 50's through the 80's from multiple studios and independent producers.

It's a mash-up of America's most-loved television classics. Yes, it's quite a bonanza! Even Laverne will 'Shirley' find something she likes. It won't take a Perry Mason to reach the verdict that happy days are here again for classic TV lovers. It will appeal to any Bob, Dick or Mary.

They will be giving Me-TV three cheers for showcasing programming that viewers and advertisers cherish... from the streets of San Francisco, to the big valleys of Hawaii and the hills of Beverly.

Me-TV will be one of Dobie's many loves as he marshals Dillon through his trek to find his honey out West.

So grab a taxi, bring your three sons or bunch of Bradys because it's going to be an affair for the whole family.

More details will be revealed when the cannon fires at 12 o'clock high Central twilight time zone Tuesday, November 23 at this Linc

We know Lucy will love this, in fact she and Ricky will be feeling like second honeymooners. Me-TV will be untouchable and yes, Gomer, we know we're really 'Pyle-ing' it on, but as the colonel knows, there may be a couple of odd shows but no klinkers on Me-TV. Get smart, get Me-TV. And P.S., Me-TV knows where car 54 is...it's at the junction of Petticoat and Rawhide.
